The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it-heart discase, pneumonia, failure or the result of kid ney disease. kidney trouble is the kidney-prisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselv break down and waste away cell by cell Bladder troubles almost always result from a decangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickent by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, fiver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kil mer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. FIRST USE OF GAS.

Way the Idea of Using It For Light Was Ridfeuled.

Great was the amazement of all Europe when at about the close of the century William Murdoch discovered that gas could be used for illuminating purposes. So little was the invention understood by those who had not seen It in use that even the great and wise (9 men of the British parliament delicate fragrance of the new Enigma laughed at the idea. "Now can there be light without a wich?" said one member of that amount body, with a wink and a knowing nod. Even the great Sir Humphry Davy ridiculed the iden of lighting towns and cities with gas. He one day asked Murdoch, "Do you mean to use the dome of St. Paul's for your gas meter?" Sir Walter Scott Headquarters Kansas and Nebraska also made merry of the gas idea and G. A. R. Severe Penalties For Smoking Were In Vogue In Olden Times.

Strange as it may appear now, both sultans of Turkey and shahs of Persia have tried their best to put down smoking. In Turkey, formerly, smoking was a crime punishable by the offenders having their pipes thrust through their noses, and in Russia in 1634 the noses of smokers were cut off. In Transylvania offenders were fined as well as liberal stopover priviliges rom 3 to 200 florins. In Berne, Switzerland, 1661, where crimes were divided into sections according to the Ten Commandments, smoking was classed with adultery.
